Dear Harold:

Thank you for your note of August 21, 1971. I tried to return your phone call several days ago but there was no answer.

I am truly sorry that you are into this thing so deeply and do not have the necessary financial backing and other resources required to permit your pursuing everything in a timely and appropriate fashion. Somehow, I hope that you can get a break.

Please keep me posted.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril
